

Resident Opportunities and Self Sufficiency (ROSS) Program

If you dream of improving your life and that of your family and are willing to take advantage of an opportunity for lasting change, the Santa Clara Pueblo Housing Authority (SCPHA) is here to help!

The (ROSS) Resident Opportunity and Self-Sufficiency program is created to help you overcome the obstacles that prevent you from being your best self. When you choose to participate in the ROSS program, we will help you develop goals for your life. We will help you find resources that can help you towards your future.

As part of the ROSS program these are the areas we will be focusing towards:

- Education
 - Life skills, GED/High school equivalency and online education, Home Maintenance classes, Job soft & Hard skill training, Tutoring and Mentoring
- Financial Literacy
 - Financial Literacy, Credit Counseling, Home Buyer Education classes, Childcare during programs, Tax preparation and Computer classes
- Health & Wellness
 - After School and Summer Program, Community Safety

Yes, I would like to be apart of the ROSS Program.

No, I do not wish to participate in ROSS Program.

If yes, please fill out all the information below. Your enrollment is voluntary, and admission is based on your desire for self-improvement, the availability of training and services.

Name: _____

Date of Birth: _____

Telephone #: _____

Call

Text

Address: _____

Email Address: _____

Signature: _____ Date: _____

ROSS Coordinator: _____ Date: _____